

Bridging the Gap 3: No Research About Us, Without Us

Morning session: G.306a, Jean McFarlane Building

- 10am Welcome (Professor Alys Young - SORD & Richard Jones – Manchester Deaf Centre)
- 10.10am Utilizing deaf cultural practices in research with the Ugandan deaf community
Dr. Goedele de Clerck, University of Manchester & Dr. Sam Lutalo-Kiingi, Kyambogo University, Uganda
- 10.35am Online remote data capture with Deaf people whose preferred language is British Sign Language: Implications for research
Dr Katherine Rogers, University of Manchester
- 10.55am Bridging the Balance
Rob Skinner, Heriot Watt University
- 11.20am Exploring and explaining using methods that suit Sign Language Peoples.
Rubben A Aurangzeb-Tariq, Art Therapist
- 11.45am The BSL Bill in Scotland
Avril Hepner, British Deaf Association

QUESTIONS FOR ALL PRESENTERS

12.30 – 1.30pm LUNCH Outside room G306.a Video booth to record signs (2.323)

Afternoon sessions

1.40pm – 3.30pm: Workshop sessions [* indicates interpreters will be available]

Workshop A: How do we invite sign language communities to share their priorities for research for the Deaf community? Claire Dodds and Emma Ferguson-Coleman Room: 2.324	Workshop B: What are clever dissemination activities for the Deaf research centres? Celia Hulme and Katherine Rogers Room: 2.325	Workshop C: Technology and geography – what opens up new opportunities? Philippa Merricks and Rachel Belk Room: 2.326	Workshop D: “Deaf Way” versus “Research Way” – Crossovers and conflicts. Jen Dodds and Rosemary Oram Room: 2.327
---	---	--	---

1.40pm – 2.30pm Workshop one: Workshop A* or B* or C or D

2.45pm – 3.30pm Workshop two: Workshop A or B or C* or D*

3.30pm Feedback from the workshops

3.40pm Chair’s Summary & Identifying Priorities for BTG 4

4pm END